"Don't Cry for Me Argentina" is the film's hit song. Sung by Madonna, who famously campaigned for the role by sending the director a four page letter about why she should have the role, the song was originally written for a 1976 concept album called Evita, and was later performed as part of a theatre piece of the same name in 1978.

Evita (1996 film) - Wikipedia

Don't cry for me, Argentina
The truth is, I never left you
All through my wild days,
my mad existence I kept my promise.
Don't keep your distance
Have I said too much?
There's nothing more I can think of to say to you
But all you have to do is look at me to know
That every word is true

The song actually had a number of different titles before Don't Cry for Me Argentina was chosen (the line only appears three times in the original version and alternatives included It's Only Your Lover Returning and All Through My Crazy and Wild Days) and shares much of its melody with Oh What a Circus (a hit for David Essex) and lyrically consists of platitudes by Eva trying to win the favour of the people of Argentina.
