Italy's "Southern question" : orientalism in one country ... The above-mentioned study by Denis Mack Smith is confirmed by the Italian historian and left wing politician Antonio Gramsci in his book "The Southern Question", by which the author emphasizes the "absolutely antithetical conditions" of Northern and Southern Italy at the time of Italian unification in 1861, when South and North were united again after more than one thousand years.

Southern Italy - Wikipedia Italy's questione meridionale (Southern Question), orientalism in one country, fatalism, Italian film music, topic theory Abstract. This article explores film music's role in shaping the discourse of Italy's questione meridionale ("Southern Question") during the long 1960s. Part of its main argument is that music, working as a subliminal agent in film dramaturgies, impacted the perception of the Italian south on an affective, non-verbal level.
